- RSC will confirm that each named conferee is a registered Republican in the district and county from which they are appointed.
- RSC will release the names of all conferees to the public.
- RSC will release the names and contact information of the conferees to all announced candidates.
- Conferees are required to present a government-issued ID at registration.
- Proxies are not allowed.
- Candidates who have notified RSC in advance of their intention to seek the party's nomination in writing or electronically will have the opportunity to present to the conferees and answer questions.
  - Presentations will be limited to 5 minutes and Q & A to 15-20 minutes.
  - Candidates are encouraged to contact conferees ahead of time to promote their candidacies.
- After presentations, each candidate will be required to have one conferee nominate and another conferee second their name to be included in the slate of candidates voted upon.
- Voting will be done by ballot.
- Successive rounds of balloting will occur until a candidate receives a simple majority of the conferees present.
  - After each round of balloting, if no candidate receives 50% + 1 of the vote, the candidate with the lowest vote total will be removed from consideration.
